Upon a Star

Tasked with creating a nursery inside the Palm Beach Gardens home of golfer Keegan Bradley and his wife, Jillian, Amy Lee McArdle of Amy Young Designs opted for a cool color palette and fanciful details. “By adding tailored upholstery pieces and silk grays as accents, we refined the space while keeping it soft and playful with animal prints, star-print wallpaper, and custom alpaca pillows and throws,” says McArdle. Multiple seating options, such as a daybed in graphite vintage velvet from RH Baby & Child, provide ample areas for the new parents to relax alongside their baby boy. McArdle also sourced the crib and the whimsical overhead light fixture with feather applications from RH. She finished the room with luxe-meets-enchancing elements, including a bouquet of cherry blossoms atop a marble side table and star wallpaper that extends onto the ceiling, forming the perfect backdrop for sweet dreams. Jupiter and New York City (917-751-0355, amyyoungdesigns.com) —Mary Murray
